

Higher Diploma in Marine Engineering

Here you'll find support for teaching and studying Higher diploma in Marine Engineering. Available at Levels 4 and 5, these specialist vocational qualifications teach learners the key concepts and practical skills for direct progression to, or within, employment. Units offered includes:- Engineering design, mechanical principles, naval architecture, marine electrical systems, ship propulsion and manoeuvrability, and quality assurance and management.

Admission Requirements:

In addition to the general university requirements, the following regulations shall apply to the admission of students into the department.

Direct Entry Requirement

- i) Two 'A' Level passes in Economics or Accounting and an additional subsidiary subject. Candidates are expected to possess five credits at SSCE/GCE 'o' level and 'A' level must be attained at not more than two sittings or
- ii) A National Diploma Certificate from approved universities or colleges of technology or Polytechnics with a grade not lower than merit. In addition, the applicant must possess five credits at SSCE/GCE 'O' level or its equivalent in subjects which include English language, Mathematics, and Economics Or
- iii) Any credential approved by the senate of the University.

The students who meet the above criteria of admission are required to submit their application along with a set of document copies listed below.

- A completed Application Form.
- Personal essay explaining his reasons for chosen to study at University.
- Official transcripts from all colleges attended
- Two Letters of Recommendation.
- On page brief resume;
- Two passport size color photos (2"X2")
- TOFEL scores, if applicable (For student whose primary language is not English.)
- Nonrefundable application fee US $100.00

Day-to-day operations of the Admission Department are handled by the Director of Admission of the University. The final approval of admissions is handled by the Admission Committee.