MASTER DEGREE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Today's competitive economy demands that individuals possess Post graduate skills in virtually every field. Right sizing and reorganization, very common features of our global landscape, have led to smaller work forces where employees with multiple skills are most appreciated. Young and working adults alike must prepare themselves with the skills which will set them apart at the workplace.

The University of Research and Advance Studies in pursuit of access to quality higher education worldwide, brings you another great opportunity to earn your MBA degree by Research in business administration. You have the choice of selecting your Research Topic combined with class attendance in the daytime, evening or weekends.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

This degree has been developed by experienced educators to provide a comprehensive Post graduate learning experience for each student. It is designed to provide you with valuable business and management skills, which will help you to succeed in the modern business environment. It emphasizes development of the individual, through management strategies and critical thinking.

Graduates of the Business Administration programme will be able to create their own employments, hold jobs in management, administration in small or large firms and are qualified for graduate degree studies.
